

EARNING WHILE LEARNING: STUDENT EMPLOYMENT, CAREERS GUIDANCE AND EMPLOYMENT RIGHTS LITERACY

APRIL 10, 2026, 13.00-14.00 CET

This webinar will explore new research insights into student employment from a major ESRC-funded study of young women's earliest experiences of work including work undertaken alongside study ('Earning while Learning').

Kim and Kirsty will share key findings from the study, including patterns of Earning while Learning, the conditions of student work, and the challenges students face in the workplace including low pay, harassment and a lack of worker voice.

The webinar will consider the potential for careers education and guidance to embed 'Employment Rights Literacy', and engage learners and clients in critical conversations around 'Earning while Learning'. Attendees will be invited to reflect on the implications of the research for their own practice.
